

This topographic map displays the Elk River Watershed, which is outlined in a thick black line. The watershed is situated in the central-eastern part of Iowa, primarily within Van Buren County and extending into Jackson and Clinton counties. The map features a grid of townships and ranges, with specific township labels like T. 34 N. and T. 35 N. visible. Major roads, including Highway 64 and Highway 65, are shown as red lines. The map also depicts various geographical features such as the Elk River, several creeks (e.g., Copper Creek, Deep Creek, Spring Creek), and lakes (e.g., Goose Lake, Sabula Lake). Towns and settlements within the watershed include Spragueville, Prentiss, Quarry, Teels Grove, Haughton, Andover, and Bryant. To the east of the watershed, the Mississippi River is shown, along with the Carroll County Wildlife and Fish Refuge. A scale bar at the bottom right indicates distances in miles (0 to 4). A north arrow is located in the bottom right corner. An inset map in the top right corner shows the location of the watershed within the state of Iowa. The DNR logo is present in the bottom left corner.
